After three (3) years the employee will be eligible for full family coverage of medical, prescription, dental and vision plans.

Any employee hired after July 1, 2006 and working less than a full-time schedule will be given a proportionate percentage (%) of the single health care plan or a proportionate percentage (%) of the waiver option.*

*Upon completion of three years of employment within the Bay Head School District, part-time employees will be offered a proportionate percentage (%) of the family health coverage. (Referred to as the "Buddy" Example).

Employees who were hired prior to July 1, 2006 will maintain the same level of benefits/waiver that they currently receive. Employees will be protected from a reduction in health benefits should a reduction in hours occur during the contract period.

4. Any employee eligible for health benefits may elect to waive these benefits. The Board of Education will compensate an employee who exercises this option at the rate of $260.00 per month ($2,600.00 per school year) if the employee is entitled to single coverage or $520.00 per month ($5,200 per school year) if the employee is entitled to family coverage.
5. If the provider allows participation of part time employees, part time employees will be permitted to participate in the health care plan but will not receive any prorated compensation through the Board of Education until the completion of three (3) years of employment within the district. At this time they will receive a proportionate amount paid on the premium based upon the proportionate percentage (%) of a full time schedule employed in the Bay Head district.
6. Any employee reimbursing the Board for all or part of health benefits premiums shall do so through payroll deductions.
7. For each eligible teacher the Board of Education will offer these plans for insurance coverage:
